Being Impartial, Unbiased, without Conflict of Interest, and Avoiding Pre-Judgment of Facts

- We will discuss each of these individually and provide examples, but some of the factors for each overlap.
- For example, being impartial is greatly aided by not pre-judging facts.
- Discussed in preamble on pp. 821-843; 1720-1726

Being Impartial

- The preamble discussion (pp. 828-829) appears to indicate that being impartial means being free from bias
- "The Department believes that keeping this provision focused on 'bias' paired with an expectation of impartiality helps appropriately focus on bias that impedes impartiality." (p. 829)

Bias: Concerns Raised in Comments in Preamble

- Preamble concerns about all paid staff members being biased in favor of institution
- Institutional bias: cover-ups
- Past tweets that appear to support complainants or respondents
- Being a feminist
- "Appearance of bias" v. actual bias

Conflict of Interest: Concerns Raised in Comments in Preamble

- Decision-maker and financial and reputational interest aligned with institution (or to protect institution)
- Co-mingling of administrative and adjudicative roles
- Title IX Coordinator supervisor of decision-maker
- Past advocacy for victim's or respondents' rights (example also for bias)
- "Perceived conflict of interest" v. actual conflict of interest

Preamble Discussion: Bias and Conflict of Interest

- Final regulations "leave recipients flexibility to use their own employees, or to outsource Title IX investigation and adjudication functions, and the Department encourages recipients to pursue alternatives to the inherent difficulties that arise when a recipient's own employees are expected to perform functions free from conflicts of interest and bias."
- No per se prohibited conflicts of interest under 106.45(b)(1)(iii) in using employees or administrative staff. (p. 826)
- No per se violations of 106.45(b)(1)(iii) for conflict of interest or bias for professional experiences or affiliations of decision-makers and other roles in the grievance process. (p. 827)

Preamble Discussion: Bias and Conflict of Interest

- Discretion to institutions on how to comply with providing decision-maker role (and other roles in the grievance process) without bias or conflict of interest
- Notes that excluding certain professionals out of fear of bias would improperly exclude experienced, knowledgeable individuals who are capable of serving impartially (citing history of working in the field of sexual violence). (p. 827)

Discussion Recommendation for Assessing Bias

"Whether bias exists requires examination of the particular facts of a situation and the Department encourages recipients to apply an objective (whether a reasonable person would believe bias exists), common sense approach to evaluating whether a particular person serving in a Title IX role is biased, exercising caution not to apply generalizations that might unreasonably conclude that bias exists...bearing in mind that the very training required by 106.45(b)(1)(iii) is intended to provide Title IX personnel with the tools needed to serve impartially and without bias such that the prior professional experience of a person whom a recipient would like to have in a Title IX role need not disqualify the person from obtaining the requisite training to serve impartially in a Title IX role."

Examples in Discussion for Unreasonable Conclusion that Bias Exists

"For example, assuming that all self-professed feminists, or self-described survivors, are biased against men, or that a male is incapable of being sensitive to women, or that prior work as a victim advocate, or as a defense attorney, renders the person biased for or against complainants or respondents"

Examples in Discussion for Unreasonable Conclusion that Bias Exists

- Department also cautioned parties and recipients from concluding bias or possible bias "based solely on the outcomes of grievance processes decided under the final regulations"
- Explained that this means, the "mere fact that a certain number of outcomes result in determinations of responsibility, or non-responsibility, does not necessarily indicate bias"

Avoiding Pre-Judgment of Facts at Issue

- A good way to avoid bias and ensure impartiality: avoiding prejudgment of facts
- Keep an open mind as a decision-maker and actively listen to all the facts presented as subjected to cross-examination*
- Each case is unique and different

Avoiding Sex Stereotypes

- "Must" not rely on sex stereotypes: Also helpful to avoiding pre-judgment of facts, remaining unbiased and impartial
- Pp. 831-837 in the preamble
- Comments include examples of sex stereotypes in comments (e.g., Women have regret about sex and lie about sexual assaults, men are sexually aggressive or likely to perpetrate sexual assault)
- Discussion – prohibition against sex stereotypes, but not feasible to list them (p. 835)
 - Different from evidence-based information or peer-reviewed scientific research, including impact of trauma
 - Cautions against an approach of "believing" one party over the other and notes 106.45(b)(1)(ii) precludes credibility determinations based on a party's status as a complainant or respondent

Avoiding Sex Stereotypes

Consideration of marginalized groups: people with disabilities, people of color, people who identify in the "LGBTQ" community (pp. 1723-25; 1732-1737)

- Preamble discusses concerns by commentators about stereotypes and accommodations for individuals with disabilities under the ADA, and individuals with developmental and cognitive disabilities
- Preamble discusses concerns from people of color for cultural and racial stereotypes
- Preamble discusses concerns regarding stereotypes of the "LGBTQ" community

Considerations: Potential Responses to Trauma

- Delayed reporting
- Difficulty remembering specifics (could also be due to drugs/alcohol)
- Reluctant reporting
- Remaining in a relationship or living arrangement with the respondent
- Being calm and composed after an assault
- Failing to identify the accused

Disclaimer

- This section uses the terms "rape," "victim," and "perpetrator" – CRIMINAL, not POLICY
- This section is about rape myths and trauma as context for what may or may not be someone's internal dialogue, to help you ask sensitive questions
- Both parties may be traumatized – and the trauma may be completely unrelated to the incident you're investigating

Disclaimer

- Do not assume that because there are signs of trauma, the trauma was caused by the respondent and therefore the respondent violated the policy
- Do not assume that because there are not signs of trauma, therefore nothing bad happened

Stories We Tell Ourselves

Know the Facts

- Most rapes are committed by perpetrators that know their victims
- Rapes can happen in a committed relationship
- Rapes can happen between individuals of any gender
- Victims of intimate partner violence may return to their perpetrator for a variety of reasons that may not seem rational to outsiders looking in

Know the Facts

- Drug-facilitated sexual assault is common, and the most common drug used is alcohol
- Being drunk doesn't excuse a perpetrator's own behavior
- A wide variety of responses are normal for a victim of trauma (e.g., calm, hysterical, angry, in denial, detached, withdrawn, or in shock) – don't make assumptions about how they "should act"

Trauma and the Brain

- Trauma affects the way the brain encodes and decodes memories of what occurred
- Fight, flight, or freeze

Why Don't People Tell Right Away?

- Fear of retaliation
- Fear of not being believed

Why Is Being Trauma Informed Important?

How you handle a person in your first meeting can make the difference between:

- Cooperation in the investigation vs. refusal to cooperate
- Retraumatization vs. supportive environment
- Putting off other potential complainants or witnesses from coming forward vs. encouraging future reports
- Lawsuit or OCR complaint (or both) vs. supportive and cooperative relationship

Words Have Power

- Victim vs. survivor vs. complainant
- Stick with policy language to the extent possible

Culture Affects Response

- | | |
|---|--------------------------------------|
| • Age of consent | • Cooperating with investigations |
| • Dating vs. arranged marriages | • Sharing personal information |
| • Attitudes towards homosexuality | • Reactions toward authority figures |
| • Attitudes towards intimate partner violence | • Reactions toward male vs. female |

Culture Affects Response

- I won't report it if it doesn't feel wrong
- I'll admit it because I don't understand it's prohibited
- I won't report it if I would be a snitch
- It's impolite to look you in the eye, so I'll look down the whole time
- I deserved it, it's normal
- Reporting this would result in serious consequences at home

The Bottom Line

Be Human & Be a Blank Slate

Issues of Relevancy (NOT Rules of Evidence)

- The Rules of Evidence do NOT apply and CANNOT apply (p. 1135)
- "The Department appreciates the opportunity to clarify here that the final regulations do not allow a recipient to impose rules of evidence that result in the exclusion of relevant evidence; the decision-maker must consider relevant evidence and must not consider irrelevant evidence."

Issues of Relevancy

Relevant unless expressly touched upon in Regulations (p. 980):

- Information protected by a legally recognized privilege
- Evidence about complainant's prior sexual history – unless such questions/ evidence about the complainant's prior sexual behavior are offered to prove that someone other than the respondent committed the conduct or if the questions/evidence concern specific incidents of the complainant's prior sexual behavior with respect to the respondent and are offered to prove consent.
- Party's medical, psychological, and similar records unless voluntary written consent
- Party or witness statements that have not been subjected to cross-examination at a live hearing*

Issues of Relevancy

The process allows both parties to submit all relevant evidence:

- Similarly 106.45(b)(6)(i)-(ii) directs the decision-maker to allow parties to ask witnesses all relevant questions and follow-up questions (p. 980)
- A recipient may not adopt a rule excluding relevant evidence whose probative value is substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice (p. 981)

Issues of Relevancy

- "[D]oes not prescribe rules governing how admissible, relevant evidence must be evaluated for weight or credibility by recipient's decision-maker, and recipients thus have discretion to adopt and apply rules in that regard, so long as such rules do not conflict with 106.45 and apply equally to both parties." (p. 981)

BUT

- "[I]f a recipient trains Title IX personnel to evaluate, credit, or assign weight to types of relevant, admissible evidence, that topic will be reflected in the recipient's training materials." (p. 978)

Relevancy: Legally Privileged Information

Section 106.45(b)(5)(i): when investigating a formal complaint, recipient:

- "[C]annot access, consider, disclose, or otherwise use a party's records that are made or maintained by a physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, or other recognized professional or paraprofessional acting in the professional's or paraprofessional's capacity, or assisting in that capacity, and which are made and maintained in connection with the provision of treatment to the party, unless the recipient obtains that party's voluntary, written consent to do so for a grievance process under this section."

Relevancy: Legally Privileged Information

Section 106.45(b)(1)(x):

- A recipient's grievance process must...not require, allow, rely upon, or otherwise use questions or evidence that constitute, or seek disclosure of, information protected under a legally recognized privilege, unless the person holding such privilege has waived the privilege.

Relevancy: Legally Privileged Information

- Preamble identifies medical and treatment records.
- Other typical privileges recognized across jurisdictions but with variations (will want to involve your legal counsel for definitions in your jurisdiction):
 - Attorney-client communications
 - Implicating oneself in a crime
 - Confessions to a clergy member or other religious figures
 - Spousal testimony in criminal matters
 - Some confidentiality/trade secrets

Consent: Left to Schools to Define

- No required definition in law, regs, or guidance
- Policy language is going to be critical to your analysis
- We will use standard language for discussion purposes

Who Can Never Give Consent?

- Under age 13 (varies by state)
- Between the ages of 13 and 16, if the other person is over 18 (varies by state)
- A student if the offender is a teacher, administrator, coach, or other person in authority employed by or serving in their school
- Severely cognitively disabled persons
- Those who are incapacitated
- Those who are by law unable to give consent

Consent: Some Policies Require...

- Clear – verbal (or non-verbal?) communication
- Knowing – Mutually understood as willingness to participate in a sexual activity and the conditions of that sexual activity
- Voluntary – Freely and actively given

Consent: Some Policies Include...

- May be withdrawn with clear communication
- Consent for one activity is not consent for everything
- Silence or failure to resist does not constitute consent
- Previous consent does not constitute consent for future activities

When Does Consent Not Exist?

- Use of physical force, threats of physical force, physically intimidating behavior, or coercion
- Individual from whom consent is required is incapacitated

Evidence of Consent?

- What words or actions did complainant use to convey consent/non-consent?
 - Must examine sexual contacts, acts in detail
- Was complainant capable of consenting? (Asleep? Passed out? Not understanding what was happening?)

Evidence of Consent?

- Who took off what clothes?
- Who provided the condom?
- Who initiated physical contact?
- Who touched who where?
- "They gave consent" = What did you say to them, and what did they say to you?

Evidence of Consent?

- [Ask the respondent] What did complainant say to you and/or what actions did they take to show consent?
 - "How did you know they wanted to have sex?"
- If applicable, what role, if any, did respondent play in complainant's intoxication/incapacitation?

Introduction to Investigative Techniques

Initial Review

- Review notes and information collected by the Title IX Coordinator
- Review Notices to Complainant and Respondent
- Review Policy/Code of Conduct
- Define Scope of Investigation
 - What elements do you think will be disputed?
 - Agreed upon?

Begin Evidence List

- | | |
|--|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If there is a criminal investigation, work with law enforcement to collect and preserve evidence Types of evidence <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Electronic communications • Security information | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pictures, videos, audio • Police reports • Personnel files • Prior complaints against respondent |
|--|---|

Begin Witness List

- If there is a criminal investigation, work with law enforcement to ensure permission to question witnesses
- Who should be included?
- Who should NOT be included?
- In what order should the witnesses be interviewed?
- Be flexible

Craft Questions for Each Witness

- Refer to the policy
- Consider what information they are likely to have related to each element
- Consider what information they are likely to have that may assist the decision-maker in determining credibility
- Be flexible

Organizing for the Interview

- What should you have with you?
 - Allegations
 - Investigation log
 - Investigation notes cover sheet
 - Pre-prepared questions
 - Evidence you may need to reference or show witness
 - Policy or Handbook

Note-taking Tips

- Use predictable symbols in the margin to easily skim during the interview:
 - ? ← Follow-up questions
 - * ← Potential evidence
 - W ← Potential witness
- Try to record exact quotes when possible

Setting Up the Interview

- Identify yourself, your role, and a general outline of what you're investigating
- Consider requesting the TIX Coordinator check in with those who fail to respond or refuse to participate
- Don't give up on the interview till you've tried at least 3 times, in at least 2 different methods

Set the Stage

- Make introductions
- Be hospitable
- Give overview of why they are being interviewed
- Explain retaliation policy
- Invite questions

Begin Broadly

- Elicit a monologue about the incident
 - What happened earlier that day before the incident?
 - What happened with regard to the incident?
 - What happened next?

Freeze Frames

- Ask the witness to “freeze” on the moment and describe details
 - What could they see? Feel? Smell? Taste? Hear?
 - Where was the other person? How were they positioned?
 - Where were you? How positioned?
 - What did you say to the other person? Them to you?
 - Describe other person’s tone, demeanor, body language

Ask Follow-Up Questions

- Re-review your notes
- Re-review the elements of each charge
 - Have you elicited all of the information this witness might have about each element?
 - Do you have an understanding of how the witness obtained the information they shared?

Credibility

- Gather facts to assist decision-maker
- Ask questions to test memory
- Identify where the witness may corroborate or contradict their testimony, or other witnesses, and physical evidence
- Be sensitive to potential trauma experienced by witnesses

When Consent is at Issue

- Consider the wording and tone of your questions
- Utilize "freeze frame" strategy
- Ask questions about what happened to determine whether there was unspoken consent
- Ask questions to identify whether alcohol/drugs may have played a role regarding consent

Closing the Interview

- Closing questions
- Request copies of all evidence potentially available to the witness
- Discuss confidentiality - but do not prohibit a party from discussing allegations
- Inform the witness of next steps and how to reach you

After the Witness Leaves

- Update investigation log
- Review notes, make corrections/clarifications
- Update witness list
- Update list of evidence to be obtained
- Write down questions to ask other witnesses
- Consider whether appropriate to send email

Physical Evidence

- Follow up on anything identified during interviews
- Is law enforcement involved? Could they be?
- Ensure physical evidence is in a secure location and documented in the investigation log

Inspection and Review of Evidence

Provide ALL Evidence to both parties and advisors

- Include everything directly related to allegations, even if you don't expect decision-maker to rely on it
- Allow 10 days to review
- Allow written response
- Follow up where necessary
- Consider responses when preparing report

Create Investigative Report

- Summarize facts
- No determination
- Provide to parties and advisors
- Allow 10 days to review

(Need help? Report-writing training available!)

Key Takeaways

- Study your updated grievance procedures
- Know the definition of sexual harassment and keep the policy language in mind as you interview parties and witnesses

Key Takeaways

- Make sure you understand potential biases (actual or perceived)
- Trauma may affect how someone responds to an incident
- Prepare for your interview with questions and statements
- Start with open-ended questions
- Obtain any documentary evidence that you can
